

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION AT W.V.M

Children's day in India is celebrated every year on 14th of November to increase the awareness of people towards the rights, care and education of children.

Welspun Vidya Mandir celebrated November 14, 2019 Children's Day, which marks the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawahar Lal Nehru with enthusiasm and zeal, keeping in mind his words, "I may not have time for adults, but I have enough time for children."

A special assembly was organised on 13th and 14th by the teachers to make the celebration unforgettable for the students. The program began with an invocation to the almighty. Various activities and events were organized and performed by the teachers.

A hilarious poem by Ma'am Kusum Sharma made the students laugh and giggle. The highlight of the assembly was the foot tapping dance performances by the teachers. The students were in awe to see their mother-like-teachers in action. The melodious songs presented by the teachers left everyone spell bound. The humorous skit enacted by the teachers added to the excitement and joy.

Brain teasing games were conducted for the children by Ma'am Jaya Hingorani. It was a fun filled day for the children, which would always be cherished as a fond memory.

A fun-filled assembly was conducted on 11th for the tiny tots of the pre-primary section. The highlights of the assembly were the puppet show and the dance performances by the pre-primary teachers. The little ones specially enjoyed the game of the musical corner organised for them.
