

COOKING WITH DAD COMPETITION AT WELSPUN VIDYA MANDIR

Cooking is a fantastic activity to do with young children, they can learn and practice a wide range of skills. The list of developmental learning skills that can be assisted by cooking skills is endless but even more important than that, it is one of the most fun, therapeutic and interactive activities.

Keeping this in mind, a 'Cookery with Dad Competition – Cooking without Fire ' was organised for the students of grade I on 3rd August, 2019.

A special set up was prepared for the father and child duo to show their culinary skills. The little ones were full of excitement and enthusiasm as their fathers were involved with them in this activity.

The Principal, Mrs. Kavita Tandon expressed gratitude to all the participant fathers for making this event a success. Ma'am also thanked them for sparing their valuable time to make their kids feel special and for building wonderful memories.

The winners of the competition are:
