

Ashish Vandan Ceremony at Welspun Vidya Mandir

"Faith moves mountains, but only knowledge moves them to the right place..."

Welspun Vidya Mandir conducted the Ashish Vandan ceremony on 16th April 2022 at Memorial to bless and pray for the success of the Class XII students in Board Exams.

The ceremony was attended by Class XII students, their parents and the faculty of the school at the Welspun Memorial.

Welspun Vidya Mandir has always been keen in going beyond providing classroom teaching and giving bookish knowledge.

It has always been the school's first priority to inculcate sense of duty and responsibility in its students so that in future they may turn out to be remarkable citizens and exemplary future policy makers.

A solemn ceremony of pledge taking was also conducted where students made commitment to safeguard the principles of this nation and uphold the ideals set forth by our country's founding fathers. The service was administered by Ma'am Nikita.

A Sarva Dharam Parthana was performed by the teachers to bless the students' success in their future endeavors.

The auditorium resonated with the pious chants of Jain prayers by Pankaj Jain Sir, Gurbani by Rutav Sir, hymns from Bible by Seryn Joseph Ma'am and Leena Joseph Ma'am, Bhajans by Rutav Sir, Anjana Srivastava Ma'am, Geetanjali Hirole Ma'am, Vijaya Mahavar Ma'am, Sonika Pujara Ma'am and Rinku Sharma Ma'am and ayats of Koran by Mohsin Bayad Sir.

The audience felt ecstatic and felt connected with the Supreme Being.

The prayer session was then followed by a presentation by the class teachers of XII Science Ma'am Seryn Joseph and XII Commerce Ma'am Sarika Saxena

Principal Ma'am Kavita Tandon handed over the souvenir, a framed class XII group photograph to the students.

Later in her inspirational speech she guided the students how to overcome the challenges and persevere. She motivated them to find within themselves the ingenuity and resolution which they all possess.

The highlight of the program was Ma'am Jaya Hingorani's movie. The movie took them to the nostalgic journey of the glorious years the students spent in their alma mater.

The session which was warmly appreciated by all the parents came to an end with students saying an emotional goodbye to their teachers and Principal.
