

Blooming Kutch Flower Show & CSR Exhibition

A Blooming Kutch Flower Show and CSR Exhibition was organised on 6th and 7th January 2026 at the Welspun Club House. The event was an initiative by Welspun World, supported by We Volunteers and nurtured by the CS Horticulture Team.

The exhibition showcased a beautiful blend of nature, creativity, and corporate social responsibility, attracting visitors with vibrant floral displays and informative CSR exhibits.

On this occasion, a Drawing Competition was organised on 6th January 2026 to encourage creativity among students. A total of 29 students from Welspun Vidya Mandir actively participated in the competition.

The theme of the competition was “Company in the Garden”, which inspired students to creatively depict the harmony between industries and nature.

The competition was conducted in two categories: Group A comprising Classes VI and VII, and Group B comprising Classes VIII and IX.

The students showcased their artistic skills with great enthusiasm and imagination. The event provided a wonderful platform for students to express their creativity while understanding the importance of greenery and sustainable development.
