

Labour Day Celebration at W.VM

Labour Day is celebrated on 1st May every year all over the world to acknowledge and reinforce the credentials attributed to all the workers and to express gratitude for their tireless efforts which greatly contributes to the upliftment and growth of the Nation. Labour Day is a reminder for us that these are the real architects of our society, and they deserve their due respect.

Welspun Vidya Mandir always strives to instill great values and constantly iterates to uphold these values of humanity and dignity of labour in students.

We have always believed that it is the small acts of kindness that count and we attempt to inculcate these virtues in our children. These values were very evidently demonstrated by the students as they celebrated Labour Day for a week. During the week, a plethora of special activities were assigned to students of different classes to showcase their gratitude towards the helping staff of the school. The students of Class IX expressed their gratitude by presenting a Nukad Natak on addiction. A heart touching skit was enacted by the students of Grade X C, emphasising the dignity of labour. As a mark of respect, beautiful handmade 'Thank You' cards were made by the students of Grade X A.

The thoughtful shayari session by Omdutt Sharma of Grade X C left everyone mesmerised. A delicious fruit salad was prepared as a kind gesture for the maintenance staff by the students of Grade X A. The boys of X B sang a rap song which they had composed themselves. An inspirational poem by Varsha Sharma of Grade X C was appreciated by everyone. Grade XII Science students organised fun filled games which worked as an energiser for the helping hands. Prizes were also distributed to the winners of these games.

A special assembly was organized by the students of Grade XII to celebrate Labour Day on 30th April'22. The program began with an inspirational prayer by the choir. Poems were recited glorifying the hard work and the importance of labour. The thought for the day was presented very creatively, sending across a strong message. A skit on the dignity of labour was enacted by the students. A dance related to the theme was enjoyed by everyone. Daksh Patel of Grade XII Commerce explained in Gujarati about the various financial schemes and plans initiated by the Government for their welfare. He also created awareness about the online payment applications.

The young Welspunites and teaching staff paid due respect to the maintenance staff including the school peons, sweepers, maids, drivers & conductors and felicitated them with small gifts as a token of their love. The gifts included useful things as a token of appreciation and gratitude, which were bought from the small contribution of Rs.30 by each student and teacher. Principal Ma'am Kavita Tandon explained the importance of these 'helping hands' who make a difference in our life.

The importance of manual labour was explained in all the classes to the students and they were asked to treat the helping hands at school with respect and dignity. Activities were planned for all the classes to forge a better understanding of the labour community among the students who must learn to respect and appreciate their efforts.
