

PARENT-CHILD TALENT SHOW

Pre Primary

The Pre-Primary Parent-Child Duo Talent Show, a highly anticipated and enchanting event, offered parents and their young children a truly memorable and heartwarming bonding experience through a captivating Talent Showcase. The Chief Guest for the day was Ma'am Geetanjali Varma, the esteemed Head Mistress of Amarchand Singhvi International School, Gandhidham.

The program commenced with the lighting of the lamp, followed by the gracious felicitation of the Chief Guest. The Talent show encompassed two exhilarating rounds, with the Video Audition phase requiring participants to record their mesmerizing performances and submit them to the designated contacts. The Final round, held at the Welspun Memorial on September 16, 2023, was a culmination of the participants' exceptional talents. The event emphasized a wide and diverse range of talents, from soulful singing, magic tricks, graceful dancing to awe-inspiring skits. Each talented duo was given a maximum of 3 minutes for their enchanting event. Participants were allowed to utilize captivating props and vibrant costumes to further enhance their awe-inspiring and visually appealing performance. It was truly amazing to witness how the parents wholeheartedly and passionately performed on the stage. All the participating duos managed to enthrall the audience, taking them into their magical spell through their genuinely creative and enchanting acts.

The judging criteria included evaluating the acts for their outstanding creativity, flawless execution, and overall appeal. Prizes were awarded to the top three duos. This exceptional talent show aimed to create cherished and lasting memories while jubilantly celebrating the immense and diverse talents of Pre-Primary students and their enthusiastic parents. Parents had truly taken the initiative to put forth their best efforts, and each performance was not only commendable but also extraordinary. Principal Ma'am Kavita Tandon expressed her heartfelt gratitude to the parents for their relentless effort and hard work, wholeheartedly appreciating their participation and unwavering dedication to making the event a resounding success.
