

SPIC MACAY

( A SITAR RECITAL PROGRAM )

The Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth (SPIC MACAY) is a voluntary youth movement which promotes intangible aspects of Indian Cultural Heritage by promoting Indian classical music, classical dance, folk music, yoga, meditation, crafts and other aspects of Indian culture.

Welspun Vidya Mandir hosted a Sitar Recital Program under the aegis of SPIC MACAY on 25th Jan'18 at the Welspun Memorial. The show commenced with the traditional lighting of the lamp. Principal Ma'am Kavita Tandon welcomed Shri Gaurav Mazumdar and his team of accompanying artists.

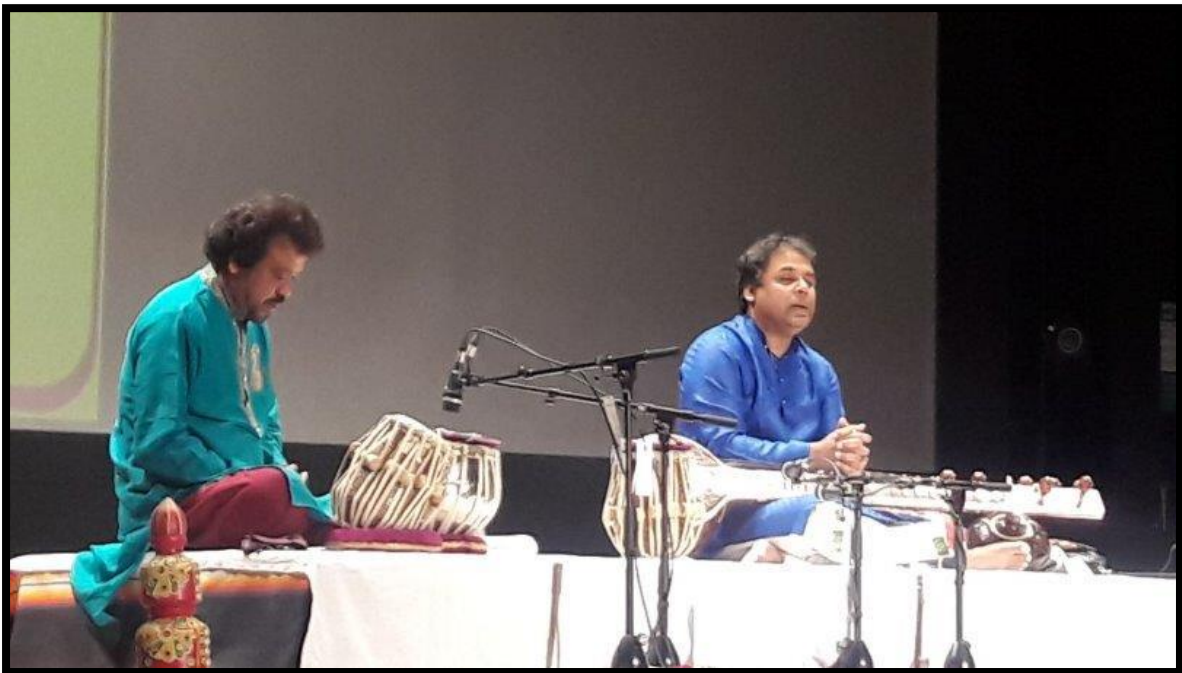

One of the most sought after and versatile musician today, Shri Gaurav Mazumdar hails from a family of well known musicians of Allahabad.

The performance received much praise from the young audience who were thrilled and spell bound to get a taste of an impeccable performance on the strings of the sitar. A mesmerizing jugalbandi of the tabla and sitar kept the audience glued to their place.

An interactive session with the students made the session not only enjoyable but informative too. It was an unforgettable experience for the students as they were exposed to the cultural heritage of India.

Principal Ma'am Kavita Tandon thanked Shri Gaurav Mazumdar and his team for such a wonderful show and also added that W.V.M was fortunate to have them share their experience and values about our culture.

Today Shri Gaurav Mazumdar as a performer, composer and educator has earned a unique place as the foremost musician of his generation contributing towards making Indian Music accessible and truly Global both in appreciation and understanding.

A Report from W.V.M.